Some of the novels may contain language not appropriate to our Christian world view. However, the novels will be discussed in the classroom according to Christian worldview.

The high school novels - a test will be given the first week of school, and the test will be geared towards knowledge of the novel as opposed to the movie version.

The students need to be familiar with the vocabulary used in the novels. If students do not know the meaning of a word, they must look up the definition.
